

Last Class!

What are some pointers you remember from these topics that you found especially helpful and/or that you think will be useful to you in the future?

Meeting with Clients

Classes (and videos) on happy clients, non-verbal communication, asking good questions, setting expectations, etc.

Presenting Results

Classes on tables, graphics, writing, giving talks, etc.

What are some pointers you remember from these topics that you found especially helpful and/or that you think will be useful to you in the future?

Guests

Galín Jones, Chandra Erdman, Travelers, Doug Hawkins, Larry Thibodeau

Ethics

General ethics, research ethics, and statistical ethics.

Short Cases

Which were your favorite short cases? What did you learn from them? Cases included: power for horse insulin, eagle wing flaps, baking bread, MPCA water quality, horse breeds

Name: _____

What did you learn in this course that you had forgotten about until today?

[Optional] Any other comment about this course that you have (not anonymous)? Perhaps a favorite part, or a suggestion, or something else?
