

Writing An Analysis Report

Today we'll go through a sample analysis report. There's lots of potential guidelines to follow; the most important is to answer your client's questions! This format may or may not always be appropriate for doing that, but it's a good starting point.

For each section, what do you notice? What's important to include? What's left out, possibly either on purpose or by mistake?

Executive Summary

Background and Goals

Study Design and Data

Statistical Methods

Results and Interpretation

Conclusion and Improvements

Homework Due Wed Apr 20

Write an analysis report for your client.

Name: _____

Do you feel ready to perform the analyses and write an analysis report for your case? If not, what questions do you have?
