Tenure Track Assistant Professor
School of Statistics
University of Minnesota

About the Job: The School of Statistics in the College of Liberal Arts invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position to begin fall semester 2016. Appointment will be 100% time over the nine-month academic year (late-August to late-May). Appointment will be at the rank of tenure-track assistant professor, depending on qualifications and experience and consistent with collegiate and University policy.

Faculty in the School of Statistics in the College of Liberal Arts are expected to maintain an active research program in statistics, develop and teach undergraduate and graduate courses, advise undergraduate and graduate students, and contribute service appropriate for the rank of the appointment to the department, college, University, and profession.

Qualifications:
Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in Statistics or a closely related field is required by start date of the appointment.

Preferred Qualifications: College/university-level teaching experience is preferred.

Candidates will be evaluated according to the overall quality of their academic preparation and scholarly work, evidence of research ability, evidence of commitment to teaching and skills as a teacher and strength of recommendations.

About the Department: The School of Statistics is a leading center of statistical practice, education, and research. There are currently 15 full-time faculty members and two joint faculty members with Sociology and Psychology, as well as 3 lecturers. The School has seen dramatic increases in its undergraduate program over the last ten years, with over 200 undergraduate majors enrolled as of Fall 2015. The School offers B.A. and B.S. degree programs, as well as M.S. and Ph.D. degree programs with approximately 120 graduate students. For more information, please visit the School’s website, http://www.stat.umn.edu.

Established in 1868, the College of Liberal Arts supports the University of Minnesota's land-grant mission as home to disciplines in the arts, humanities, and social sciences. The College of Liberal Arts values diverse cultures, experiences, and perspectives as key to innovation and excellent education. http://cla.umn.edu/

How to Apply: All applicants must apply online at https://www.myu.umn.edu/psp/psprd/EMPLOYEE/HRMS/c/HRS_HRAM.HRS_APP_SCHJOB.GBL?Page=HRS_APP_JBPST&Action=U&FOCUS=Applicant&SiteId=1&JobOpeningId=303640&PostingSeq=1. To be considered for this position, please click on "Apply" and follow the Instructions. You will be given an opportunity to attach a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and a sample of your scholarly written work representing your disciplinary focus. You can also search for the posting using Job Opening ID 303640.
In addition to the materials submitted online, candidates for a tenure-track position are asked to arrange for three letters of recommendation to be sent directly to the School of Statistics. The letters of recommendation should be sent to:
Kate Klosterman, Executive Office & Administrative Specialist
kokloste@umn.edu

The priority deadline for application materials is December 7, 2015. The position will remain open until filled.

Additional materials may be requested at a later date.
Please refer questions to the School of Statistics,
612-625-8046.

The University of Minnesota shall provide equal access to and opportunity in its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, gender, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.